

~~But the main problem is that it is a very contagious disease and it can spread to other children in the same class or in the same family. Always use proper hygiene and avoid sharing personal items like towels or clothing. If you suspect your child has bullous impetigo, consult a doctor for proper treatment.~~