

Mucinoses

There are six types of cutaneous mucinosis: (a) generalized myxedema, (b) pretibial myxedema, (c) lich

Regular demonstration of the presence of mucin in the dermis is possible only in pretibial myxedema, se

The mucin found in these six diseases represents an increase in the mucin that is normally present in th

The mucin present in the six types of mucinosis stains a light blue in sections stained with H&E. It also s