

~~Yellow nail syndrome is a rare condition characterized by yellowish discoloration of the nail plates, lymphedema of the extremities, and bronchiectasis. It is often associated with chronic lung disease and may be a sign of an underlying systemic condition.~~